APPOINTMENT OF NEW CLUB MANAGER

Welcoming our new club Operations and Functions Manager – Erica Ngawaka

The Innaloo Sports Club is pleased to welcome Erica Ngawaka as our new Club Operations and Functions Manager.

With more than 15 years' experience in venue operations, licensed hospitality management, entertainment coordination, catering, and community engagement, Erica brings a strong skill set that aligns perfectly with the Club's operational and strategic priorities.

Erica has managed bar operations, staff leadership, compliance, financial processes, member-facing services, and large-scale entertainment programs across a range of venues with experience that directly supports the Club's focus on high-quality service, effective administration, and strong community and sub-club relationships.

Her background in marketing, events, and digital engagement positions her well to grow our functions portfolio & enhance our public profile.

Erica, has already settled in exceptionally well, quickly building rapport with our team and embracing the welcoming culture of the Club.

Please join us in warmly welcoming Erica to the Innaloo Sports Club.

Erica was introduced to the wonderful Bar Staff, Lauren (right of Erica in top photo), followed by Jade and Bernie, with Mary and Erica below and Deseree (who is about to return from a wonderful European holiday). They are working collaboratively to improve services to members and their guests.

A big thank you goes out to all staff for their efforts and support of members and their guests.

THANK YOU MARCIA !!

We also say a big thank you to Marcia, who everyone knows for her wonderful support and assitance in holding the fort whilst a new manager was found.

Thank you sincerely Maricia for all your dedication and help during this time and hopefully you can now take a break and return to the focusing on winning bowls for the Club. Thank you!!

YABUKA BEER GARDEN AND SOLOMON'S LIGHTS

Barry's Brilliant Gift Lights Up the Yabuka Beer Garden

A huge thank you to Life Member Barry Solomon for his generous $1,000 donation, enabling the stunning new festoon lights in the Yabuka Beer Garden. Installed on 7 December by volunteers Matt Isaia, Adam Huthinson, Chris Palladino, Bill Doyle, Tony Palladino and several helpful passersby, the lights have truly transformed the space. Photos show how magical the garden now looks, just in time for Earl Cole's premiere on 28 December. Thank you to everyone involved — especially Barry.

COMING SOON TO THE CLUB

SUNDAY AFTERNOONS WITH EARL COLE

Innaloo Sports Club is delighted to announce that well known Perth singer and entertainer Earl Cole will be performing in Yabuka Beer Garden under the Solomon lights at the Club.

When: Sunday 28th December from 4.00 to 7.00 pm

Earl is one of Western Australia's premier singers and entertainers and has performed for over a quarter of a century throughout Australia and Southeast Asia. He is well known as a swing and jazz crooner and but he also covers pop, rock, soul and disco hits from the 60s, 70s and 80s and was the lead singer of popular 80s cover band "80s Inc" that packed Perth venues from 2012 to 2023.

Earl will be singing a mix of classic tunes that will take you on a trip down memory lane and be sure to get your toes tapping.

Earl, will be performing again in January and February 2026 - 4 and 18 January 2026, 8 and 22 February 2026.
